Policy for Fee Concession

- 1) Inclusive Fee Concessions: At Desh Bhagat College, we champion equal access to education through our dynamic fee concession policy, ensuring financial barriers don't hinder academic pursuits.
- 2) Gender Equality Initiative: Females are offered a progressive 50% fee concession, empowering them to pursue education without financial constraints, fostering gender parity in our academic community.
- 3) Community Support: Students from Bardwal and Babanpur village receive a 33% generous fee concession, it strengthening our commitment to local communities and facilitating educational opportunities closer to home.
- 4) Financial Aid for Needy: Recognizing financial challenges we extend need based fee concession, ensuring every deserving student has equal opportunity to thrive academically, irrespective of financial circumstances. Moreover, for the economically weaker section, the Trust has initiated admission with only 500/- per semester.
- 5) Economical Weaker Students : Students are offered a progressive fee concession depending upon the current economic condition of student to pursue education without financial constraints with the recommendation of Desh Bhagat Trust, Principal & Teachers and ensuring financial barriers don't hinder academic pursuit.
